Buster Keaton In 'Navigator' Will Be Shown

Comedian's Latest Hit Is Booked at Lomita Sunday and Monday

Buster Keaton has gone down to the sea in ships. Yup, he's way out in the briny open spaces where ships are ships and water is wet. His latest Metro-Goldwyn feature comedy is called "The Navigator" and it's coming to the Lomita theatre Monday and Tuesday. To make it Buster hired an ocean liner and sailed to Catalina Island, where most of the scenes were made at anchor.

The star had the liveliest time in his life doing "The Navigator," and from advance reports the picture is the liveliest of his career. They put a sailor's suit on Buster, and when he wasn't swabbing decks he was shoveling coal, tons of it, into the ship's many furnaces with their cavernous maws, as the latter are called in shipping circles. Buster's ship is the Buford, a 450-foot liner, and one of Buster's jobs was scraping 450 feet of barnacles off the Buford's hull. For this job Buster wore a diving suit and was trailed by a submarine, which helped him fight off octopi, sharks, and enraged swordfish. Buster chartered the Buford for two months. And with life nets spread at the level of the royal yardarms he spent many pleasant days adjusting sky sails on the fore, main and mizzen masts. To say nothing of the other stunts he thought up for the new picture. It is reported Keaton went to great personal risk for some of the scenes, so that audiences might have a real thrill. One thing is sure, future applicants for the job of deep-sea diving will decrease very much, for anyone seeing Buster don a suit and go down in "The Navigator" is likely to feel rather timid about trying it himself.

SCHOOL NEWS

The parents of Torrance will be glad to hear that Miss Edith Lay has been appointed a playground supervisor. She will be in charge of the school grounds on Monday and Tuesday from 7:45 to 9 a. m. and 12:15 to 1 p. m., and on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 3 to 5 p. m.

The P.-T.-A. is to have a hot dish at the elementary school every day. The plan is to have it always 5 cents. The children may buy this and have something hot to eat with the cold lunch which they bring from home.

Wednesday was celebrated at the elementary school by showing a film to the children. The film showed the change in methods of water transportation.

Thursday and Friday were the Thanksgiving Day holidays.

Miss Ohlmacher has been given a position as counselor in the schools and will not be in the Torrance school. We wish for Miss Ohlmacher much success in her new field of school work.

Mrs. Alice Blackstad is a new teacher in the school. She will have a first grade room. This makes three entire first grade rooms, and Mrs. Berry will have some first grade children in her room. The children were rearranged on Wednesday.

Mrs. Berry has returned to school after a long and severe illness. We give Mrs. Berry a hearty welcome on her return.

The teachers of the school had a dinner Wednesday to welcome Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Blackstad and to wish Miss Ohlmacher good luck as she leaves. The table was decorated with beautiful sweet peas. These were given to the honor guests. Turkey place cards were at each place and real chicken and mince pie gave it the look of a Thanksgiving dinner.

NOISE

The head of a large business house noticed that one of his clerks had been looking off color for some months, and one morning when he was rather paler than usual, he tackled him on the subject. "You look tired this morning, Jones," he said kindly. "Don't you sleep well?"

"No, sir," was the reply. "The fellow I share a room with and I suffer from alternate insomnia. "Alternate insomnia? What is that?"

"Whoever gets to sleep first keeps the other awake all night!"

"When you hear the steamboat whistle Your paper is at the door."

For proof of this statement ask Mrs. F. J. Young, 1007 Cota, who advertised a stove for sale, in these columns recently. She telephoned in to say that the stove was sold so quickly that the ink on the paper could scarcely have had time to dry!

Or inquire of Mrs. H. R. Seckler, 2045 Sun St., Lomita. Her little daughter lost her pretty new fall hat. Mrs. Seckler advertised in these columns for its return and received it the following morning.

MODERN "FUZZY WUZZY" FIGHTS FOR UNBELIEVERS

Baja El Naji Ba-Kali is a modern Osman Digna. He fought with all the fury of "Fuzzy Wuzzy" in holding the sacred city of Xeuen, Morocco, for 25 days, in the face of a savage attack. But unlike "Fuzzy Wuzzy," he fought on the side of the unbelievers. He has been decorated by the Spanish government for his courageous defense of the city against besieging rebel forces, enabling General Serrano of the Spanish forces to break the rebel ring.

Mrs. Janet Woodburn and family passed Thanksgiving with Mrs. Woodburn's sister, Mrs. Robert Dining, and family, at Hollywood.
